The Senior
Class of 1968
Presents

Yesterday is but today's memory and tomorrow is today's dream.

GIBRAN

KNIGHT

NORTH ANDOVER, MASSACHUSETTS

FOREWORD

A school is more than bricks and mortar, more than classrooms and desks. These are peripheral to the essential being of the school—the student—as the nucleus, all else revolves around him. The faculty and other school personnel form integral parts of the whole and exist to foster the development of each student. The 1968 Knight serves as an annual record of all these individuals, who together form what we know as North Andover High School.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Under the leadership of the class officers, Brian Guptill, John Caffrey, and Chris Moreschi, the Junior Class continued to play an important part in the daily life of our school. Members participated in various student committees and in all clubs and athletic teams. Junior class members in the Honor Society include Sandra Foley, Susan Haltmaier, Kathy Crawley, Chris Moreschi and Susan Delisle. In addition, members such as Chris Moreschi and Kathy Morin served as Junior Editors of the Knight; while Ginny Bates was Junior Editor of the Squire. Don Larochelle and Ann Corrigan played important roles in this year's school play.

In the field of athletics all varsity teams had members from the class of '69. Some of the outstanding ones included Jerry Minihan and Chris Rock (football); Peter Piantidosi and George Farkas (basketball); Louis Luciano and Steve Coates (wrestling); Peggy Breen and Nancy Guilmette (basketball); Kathy Crawley (field hockey); and Billy Dolan (track).

This year's Sophomore Class, led by President George Labelle, Vice-President Joseph Lynch, and Secretary-Treasurer Karen Evangelos, continued its fine record of service to the school. Joining the class officers on the Student Council were Linda Patterson, Thomas Robinson, and Cynthia Turner. Bob Burns, Lee Zagorski and Patti Zahoruiko are but a few examples of the many varsity athletes on this year's teams from the class of '70. Other members took active roles in a variety of clubs that make up the school's extra-curricular activities.

During the year class dues were collected and a Sophomore Class Dance was held. This year's faculty advisors to the Sophomore Class were Miss Cole and Mr. Mitchell.

This year's Freshman Class lost no time in entering into the spirit of school activities, and proving themselves a welcome addition to our school community. In an election held in September the class chose as its leaders Scott Robinson, President; Patty Oakes, Vice-President; and Patricia Sullivan, Secretary-Treasurer. Also elected as class representatives on the Student Council were Paul Powers, Joe Sherlock, Evelyn Belle Isle and Marsha Johnson.

During the year various class members joined school clubs and organizations, and the class was well represented at all school functions.

The class officers have instituted a system of dues to defray senior expenses. Additional funds were raised at the annual Freshman Class dance. Class advisors were Mrs. Brown and Mr. Buco.

ACTIVITIES

The Johnson Chapter of the National Honor Society recognizes individuals of the student body who show a combination of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Miss Margaret Donlan is advisor to the group.

The Society holds an annual Christmas dance, takes part in the Eastern Massachusetts Conference of Honor Societies, and awards a cash prize to the highest ranking senior in English.

THE KNIGHT

The Knight, under the advisorship of Mr. John Minihan, has two primary purposes. The first is to produce a yearbook that represents student life at North Andover; the second is to give interested seniors the opportunity and experience of writing and publishing their own book.

This year's staff led by Karen Wood and Pat Elliott spent many hours preparing this edition and hope it will serve as an accurate record of the events and activities of North Andover High School for 1968.

THE SQUIRE

The SQUIRE completed its fourth successful year with six publications and a special senior issue. The purpose of this year's SQUIRE was to inform students and teachers of the events and talents within their school. Because of excellent student support, the SQUIRE was able to satisfy a variety of interests. There were articles dealing with school and club news, coming events, student literary works, and special features.

The editors of the SQUIRE for the 1967-1968 season were Susan Donahue, Editor-in-Chief; Virginia Bates, Junior Editor; Mary Ellen Guererra, News Editor; Janet Gallenstein and Brian Curtin, Sports Editors; Gloria Salvetti, Business Editor; John Bellorado, Art Editor; Margaret Berthel, Typing Editor; Karen Murphy, Publicity Editor; John Costello, Photography Editor.

Special recognition must be given to Mrs. Burns, faculty advisor, and Mr. Robinson's photography club, for their help in the publication of this year's SQUIRE.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Photography Club is one of the most functional clubs in N.A.H.S. Under the direction of their advisor, Mr. John Robinson, this organization films various athletic events, and takes pictures for school and town publications.

SCIENCE CLUB

The aim of the Science Club is to give its members an opportunity to work in the fields in which they excel. This year's club was led by President David Ciarcia. During the year various club members participated in regional science fairs.

SKI CLUB

The Ski Club is a new addition to the North Andover High's activities. With the co-operation of their advisors, Mr. Bennett, Miss Yanofsky, and Mr. Bevilacqua, the club was able to plan an exciting winter of skiing for its members. The officers for this year were as follows: Jack Bellorado, President; Jack Sullivan, Vice-President; Candace Cane, Secretary; Sandra MacNeill, treasurer.

The Math Club, under the supervision of Mr. Arthur Forgetta and Mr. Joseph Lynch, gives its members the opportunity to test themselves with higher mathematical problems.

The club belongs to the Eastern Massachusetts Mathematical League, and competes with other members monthly.

The Math Club holds its annual dance every autumn. The funds are used for league dues and for awards given "to the clubs' high scorer at the annual banquet."

The Dramatic Club, under the leadership of Mr. James McDonald, is open to all students having an interest in the theatre. Students are given the opportunity to produce, perform, and handle various back-stage work such as lighting, scenery, construction, costuming, and make-up.

During December, the annual Christmas assembly provided entertainment for the students. On April 5th and 6th, the Dramatic Club presented The Courtship of Eddie's Father. Stephen Larochelle and Donald Larochelle held the major roles. Gail Henshaw headed a large supporting cast consisting of: Susan Longo, Anne Corrigan, Samuel Torrisi, Hunter Clouse, Richard Coram, Susan Haltmaier, Catherine Brucato, Bruce Aspeslagh, Dana Summers, Kenneth Rokes, and Jane Haltmaier.

DRAMATIC

CLUB

This year, under the enthusiastic leadership of Susan Donahue, the Russian Club strove to make its members more aware of the Soviets as a people. This was done through films and lectures and a trip to a Soviet education display at Boston College. Other activities included a ski-toboggan outing, a trip to the Boston Pops and the annual Russian Club Dance.

OFFICERS

RUSSIAN CLUB

This year's French Club, under the direction of all the French teachers, participated in numerous and varied activities. The members attended a French play and ate at a French restaurant. During the Christmas season the members sang Christmas carols at a local hospital. The club also held a Santa Claus dance in order to raise funds to promote club activities.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club is under the direction of Mr. Scott Mitchell. This year Tom Carney served as president of the club.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club is under the direction of Mr. Louis Hull. Members learn general library techniques. With this knowledge they are able to assist in the library during free periods.

AUDIO-VISUAL CLUB

The Audio-Visual Club, under the direction of Mr. John Robinson, serves the school by assisting in the setting up and running of Audio-Visual equipment.

CHORUS

The North Andover High School Chorus is open to any student having an interest in music. Under the direction of Mrs. Kaminsky, the Chorus competed in the annual New England Festival of Music.

BAND

The North Andover High School Band has had another successful season of pepping up school activities with its talented performers. The group, under the direction of Mr. Milton Kimmel, has added extra school spirit to rallies, games, and other functions. The Band officers for this year were Glenn Annis, President; Jonathan Timlin, and Deborah Anderson, Vice-President; and Sharon Hennessy, Secretary.

CHEERLEADERS

FIGHT! SCORE! WIN! BASKETS! BASKETS!
BASKETS!

These are some of the cheers that our red and black clad cheerleaders echoed at the football and basketball games. The cheerleaders began the 1967-68 athletic season with a pep rally before the annual clash of the Scarlet Knights and the Lions. These bouncy, vivacious girls under the guidance of Miss Mackey, stimulated the pep and spirit of the student body and gave the athletic teams their 100% support. Under the co-captainship of Margo Bryan and Gale Allen, the girls were successful in their unrelenting attempt to rally school spirit at every contest.

FOOTBALL

The 1967 football season for North Andover turned out to be a successful one in many respects. After a slow start, losing their first three games, the Knights then reeled off five consecutive wins before losing to Andover in the final. Even though they lost most of their line from the 1966 team, the Knights filled each position with some promising talent. For their outstanding play in competition Captain Mike Lynch and lineman Al Lanni were selected for Merrimack Valley Conference All-Star berths. Captain Lynch, who was switched from lineman to fullback, carried most of the offensive punch and also directed the defense.

Coach Sullivan was delighted to have such a spirited team with lots of drive. He also was happy to announce the selection of next year's co-captains Jerry Minihan and Chris Rock.

BASKETBALL

The "Knights" coached by Mr. Licare, had another highly successful basketball season. The team posted an outstanding record of eighteen wins and only two losses in regular season play and captured the Merrimack Valley Championship, as well as an invitation to the Tech Tourney.

Offensive standouts on this year's championship team were Pete Piantidosi, Lee Zagorski, and George Farkas. Captain Ron Swasey, Rick Coram, and Mike Cotter led the Knight's defense, which allowed the least number of points among all the League teams. Also contributing heavily to the year's successful season were Jim Verrecchia, Bob Burns, and Jim Holdsworth.

With the return of most of this year's team, and the addition of some fine J.V. players the N.A.H.S. hoopsters' future looks very bright.

CROSS COUNTRY

This year has proved to be the best yet for the North Andover harriers. Coach John Strobel has again produced a fine running team with a season's record of 9-1-1. The team finished in second place in the Merrimack Valley League Meet and captured 12th place overall in the State Cross-Country meet.

This year's team was led by co-captains Ron Swasey, and Jim Mistretta who ran exceedingly well throughout the season. Supporting these leaders were Brian Cardello, Bob Kelly, Jack Bellorado, Jack Sullivan, Charlie Olpp, Mike Sullivan, Dan Doyle, Jon Timlin, Bob DiCarlo, Joe Czarnecki, Jim Day, Bob Witzgall, Russ Hamel, and next year's co-captains Kevin Callahan, and Kevin McGregor.

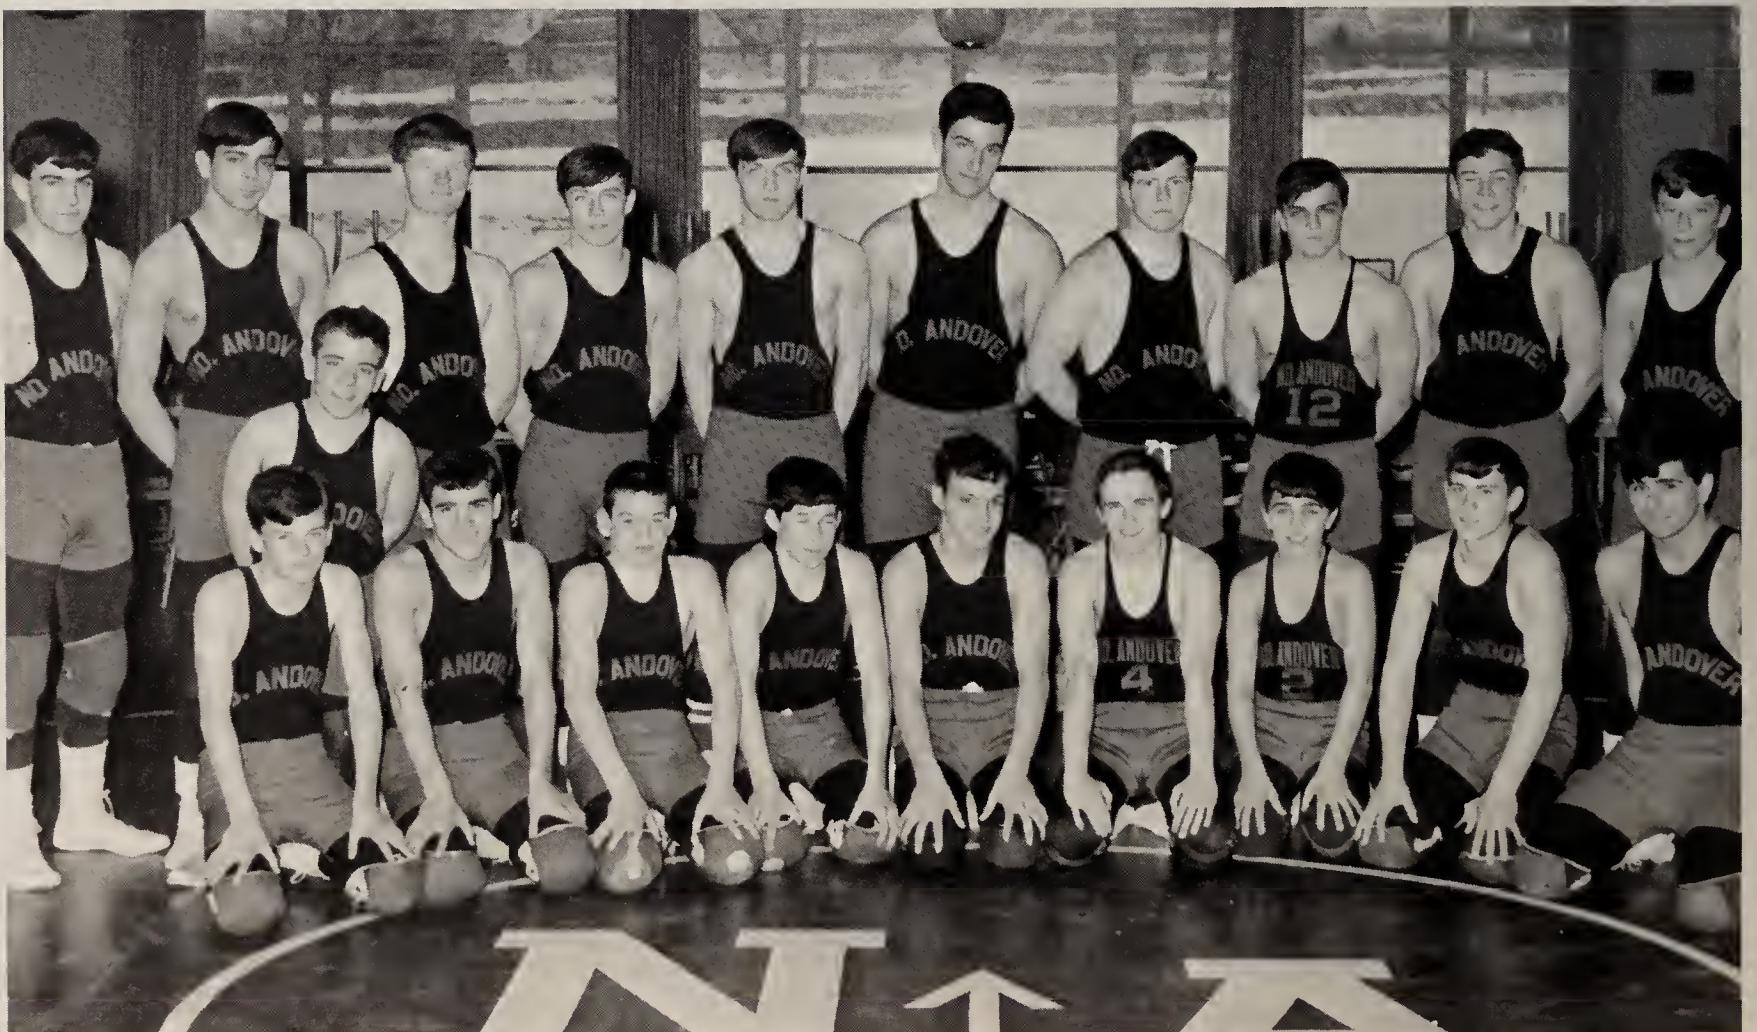

Captain Castricone

WRESTLING

The wrestling team had a successful season this year compiling a 13-6 record under the coaching of Mr. Crozier. Captain Dave Castricone led the matmen with a 15-2-2 record. Coming close behind him were Micky Beaudoin and Jon Timlin.

The highlights of the season were the Merrimack Valley Tournament where six men came in the top four positions in their classes; the State Tournament where Jon Timlin took a fourth place; and the New England Tournament where Bill Dolan took a fourth place.

Coach Crozier

TRACK

This year's track team coached by Mr. Crozier and Mr. Rozzi had another fine season. The successful record posted by the "Knights" is accredited to the leadership of captains Ron Swasey and Ken Westbrook, and the desire and hard work of each individual in obtaining mastery of his event.

Those seniors who contributed heavily to the team's success were Captains Swasey and Westbrook; Charlie Olpp, Jim Mistretta, and Mike Angeloro. They were assisted by many underclassmen who aided the team in various track and field events.

BASEBALL

Coach Strobel

After thirty-three years of successful coaching and several championship teams, Mr. George Lee has retired from his baseball career at N.A.H.S. to assume his new position as Assistant Principal. Last year's team, under Coach Lee's direction, posted a fine record of thirteen wins against only three losses and captured the Merrimack Valley Championship. As the new pilot of last year's championship team, Coach John Strobel continued in the tradition of Mr. Lee's successful seasons.

This year's team was led by co-captains Al Lanni and Joe Faro. Adding to the offensive and defensive punch of the squad were Neal McCann, Steve Sullivan, Lee Zagorski, Jerry Minihan, and pitchers Gary Morse and Chris Rock.

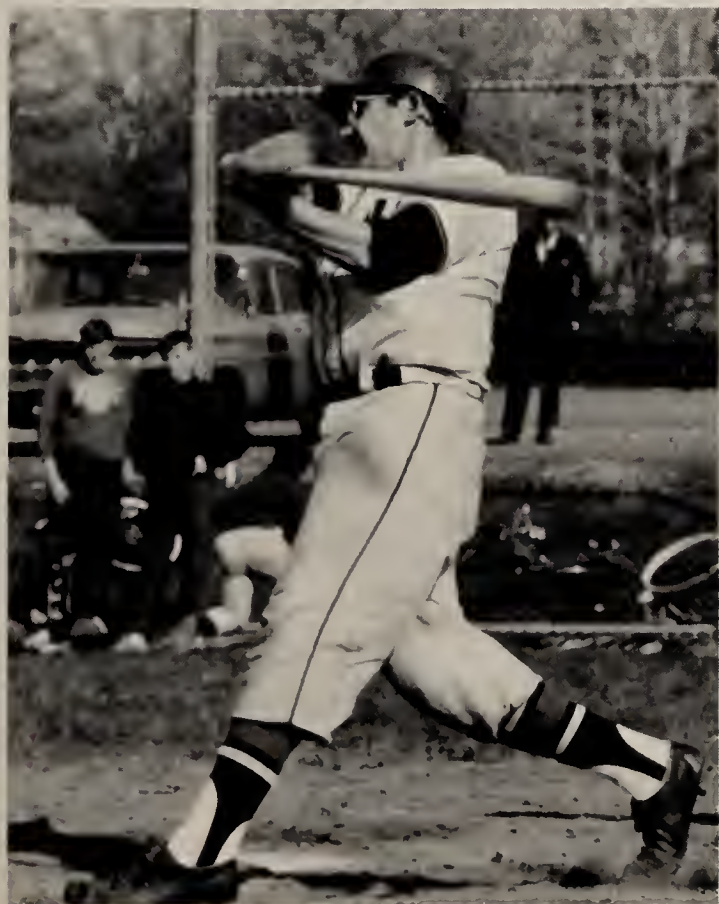

Mock games, hours of practice and unyielding performances on the field all contributed to this year's baseball success.

FIELD HOCKEY

Run . . . run . . . scoop . . . shoot . . . a goal! That's what it took to win the 1967 Girls' Merrimack Valley Field Hockey Championship this year. The girls, coached by Miss Nancy Yanofsky, had an outstanding season boasting a league record of six wins, no losses and one scoreless tie. The near perfect record was accredited to the long hours of practice and the team's ardent desire to win. The team's top goal-getters were Nancy Guilmet with eight goals, Co-Captain Janet Gallenstein with seven goals, and Sandie Foley with five goals. The team also had an outstanding defense led by Co-Captain Barbara Stone assisted by goalie Marilyn Willis, fullbacks Nancy Greenwood, Ruth Donahue, and Elaine Garofoli, and halfbacks Louise Fiori, Patti Zahoruiko, and Nancy Korb.

Co-Captains for next year are: Sandi Foley and Kathy Crawley.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

This year's girls' basketball team had a highly successful season. With a regular season record of ten straight victories and no defeats, the girls copped the Merrimack Valley League Championship.

Brilliantly coached by Miss Yanofsky and captained by Barbara Stone and Janet Gallenstein, the team went on to the Billerica Tournament where they lost a heart-breaker by one point in the semi-finals.

This year's offense was sparked by high scorers Patti Zahouriko, Peggy Breen, and Nancy Guilmet. Janet Gallenstein, Barbara Stone, and Stephanie Zahouriko were the team's defensive standouts. Others playing decisive roles in the team's success were Bev Beeley, Charlene Kennedy, Sandie MacNeill, Peggy Windle, and Kathy Samia.

The girls' fine record was due to individual hustle and an enthusiastic team spirit. Congratulations and best wishes to next year's co-captains Stephie Zahouriko and Nancy Guilmet.
